His Relationship with the Family of George Washington.

tession, is a very rich man through his wife, the daughter and heiress of the late of the Manor of Sulgrave and an- He remained in Congress ten years. orga Washington in the direct ers and a member of the family of the beginning of those troubles bewhich culminated in the War of In-The town of Shirley, near abeyance, whence it was recalled by morrow. Charles II in favor of Str Robert Shirley. grandson of Lady Dorothy Deversux.

drove to the gallows at Tyburn, where the Marble Arch now stands in London, He was admitted to the bar in Brooklyn

The drop, it is reported, did not work very pai Court at New Beighton.

his wife, and as she refused to hold any ommunication with him after his arrest Duke of Argyll, and lived for nearly fifty fears increased with age; so the receiving ship North Carolina.

fallen asleep while reading, the flimsy ter Congreve, who won his Victoria Cross was made President. while endeavoging to save the guns at the lattle of Colenso, in the earlier disastrous days of the Boer War. He has been A.D. C. to Lord Kitchener and military St. Louis, survive him. secretary to the Duke of Connaught. He bought up the property at the remarkably low price of $400,000, including the moated Chartley Hall (a part of which dates of Chester, on his return from the Holy The Lane here, carly this morning. Land.

The new Earl Ferrers, although he has Shirley family since the reign of Henry VIII, when it came into their hands through the marriage of Sir Francis Shir- children. ley to the widow and heir of Sir John Congreve, oddly enough, an ancestor of the present owner of Chartley. The house Elizabethan era, and is a very stately, and withal homelike, mansion, of red brick, half timbered construction.

It is in the mausoleum of the Shirleys a a sheltered nook of the park at Staunon Harold, that the late Earl Ferrers has been laid to rest, in the same vault that holds the body of the fourth earl, who Was hanged at Tyburn.

MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

OBITUARY.

GENERAL EDWARD M. HAYES.

Morganton, N. C., Aug. 15.-Brigadler-General Edward Mortimer Hayes, U. S. A retired, known as "Fighting Jack" Hayes, died here to-day. He was seventyone years old. General Hayes served in the Civil War.

on the frontier in many Indian campaigns and in Cuba and the Philippines. He is survived by his wife and four children. one of whom is Lieutenant Jack Hayes of the 16th Infantry. The burial will be in Arlington National Cemetery.

General Hayes was a native of New bugler of the 2d Cavalry, winning high Ommendation for his services in the war with the Comanches in Texas. When the Civil War broke out he was again in the saddle as a volunteer officer, serving in the Western armies and with Sherman in his march to the sea.

Transfered to the regular army after the Civil War, he was assigned to the ith Cavairy, and his name as a fearless indian fighter became familiar all over the plains sud mountain country. President Arthur visited the Wind River ountry and crossed the divide to get into Yellowstone Park, General Sheridan being his host. Captain Hayes was selected to General Hayes's services in the war President of the Republic for the term Shale, Claude Flemming, Mile. Dazie, and hygiene at Harvard Medical School, command the escort. with Spain were useful, but not hazard- running from 1912 to 1916, left this mornous, but when he reached the Philippines ing for Costa Rica. to take a rest after the Dolly sisters. he faced hardships and dangers with the election campaign. He intends to said to General Bates, when that officer warned him of his tendency to recklessly expose himself, "is in the saddle. If he when the time comes."

CHARLES W. STONE.

at his summer home near here to-day He was sixty-nine years old.

Charles Warren Stone was born at Groton, Mass., on June 29, 1843. He atrestore in a measure the fortunes of tended Lawrence Academy and from this peerage, which has been so closely there went to Williams College, where identified throughout English history with he was graduated in 1863. Three years the maintenance and care of the famous later he was admitted to the bar at Warren, Penn. In 1870 he was elected near Fifth avenue, was crowded yesterday of attention nowadays. That is to say. The family had many American asso- to the Pennsylvania House of Represent- afternoon with members of the recently dred dollars has an alluring sparkle for The fainty and the new Earl Ferrers can atives. A few years afterward he was organized National Federation of Theatre the investment broker and his fellows. ations, and the same descent as the first sent to the State Senate, and in 1878 Clubs, who met to congratulate a fellow. But when the prospective investor's capi ried Elizabeth, only child and heiress | wealth from 1837 to 1890, when he was been chosen as the successful author of The other day a very smilest contract the successful author of the other day a very smilest contract the successful author of the other day a very smilest contract the successful author of the other day a very smilest contract the successful author of the other day a very smilest contract the successful author of the other day as the successful author of the other day as

A namesake of the new Lord Elezabeth Moorhead, of Erie, Penn. He Court," will be given at the Astor The- two cents in coin of the United States. was a member of the Sons of the Revo- arre, lent for the purpose by Cohan & He wasn't so very he is now the chief was that lution. American Academy of Political Harris, on Sunday evening. October 6. is now was a Colonial Gov- and Social Science, American Historical

ISAAC HULL PLATT.

Dr. Isaac Hull Platt died at his home. in Massachusetts, is named after Runnemede, Wallingford, Penn., on Wednesday. He was born on May 18, 1853, The Ferrers peerage and the Chartley in Brooklyn, and practised there many Park property, with the herd of wild cat- years. Dr. Platt was a grandnephew of s into the Shirley family through | Commodore Isane Hull, who commanded the marriage of Sir Henry Shirley to the frigate Constitution Dr. Platt's Lady Dorothy Devereux, daughter of widow, Emma Haviland Platt, and two Oncen Elizabeth's favorite Lord Essex, sons, Haviland H. Platt and Phillip G. who was also Lord Ferrers. On Essex's Platt, survive him. Burial will be in ceath his barony of Perrers fell into Greenwood Cametery, Brooklyn, to-

JOHN J. KENNEY.

It is unnecessary to recall here the de- Staten Island, yesterday afternoon, after scription of the crime of the fourth earl, a long illness. He was born in New who, after trial by his peers in the House York City on March 2, 1838, and had lived of Lords in 1789, sentenced to death, on Staten Island since he was six weeks in his state coach-and-six, namely, the in 1880. In 1882 he was elected Clerk of coronations and for the epening of Parlia- two terms as School Commissioner of It was at his execution that the drop of Nicholas Muller for many years and at was used for the first time in England in the time of the city consolidation was a slace of the old system of cart and ladder. pointed judge of the lat District Municiwell It is on record that "the earl's toes to run for District Attorney and was soon out of pain and quite dead in four his opponent, John H. Ellsworth, the Retes." After he had been left hang- publican candidate. He was a member of for an hour he was buried in old St. the Staten Island Club, the Richmond as Twenty years later Borough Democratic Club and the Bur there's his body was disinterred and conveyed to Association of Richmond County. At the of Mr. old, near Ashby-de-la-Zouche, where it member of the law firm of Kenney & nue. Brooklyn, yesterday morning. He was seventy-three years old. He served The performance of The Higher Court" caused a fracture of the hip. He was the the profession have been engaged to apnavy, and was a member of the Society eration only through invitation of the solid of Old Brooklynites, the Order of Old members, as tickets will be sold to them hangings of her bed caught fire at the Fellows, and was interested in the Beth- only. sangings of her bed caught are at the lehem Encampment. He was active in lamp standing by her hedside. This took place a hundred years ago.

The Chartley Hall estate, with its 4,000 The Chartley Hall e

HENRY ANDERSON.

Blue Point, Long Island, Aug. 15.-Henry from Elizabethan times) and the ivied Anderson, fifty-nine years of age, of No. fuins of Chartley Castle, which was built 1966 Dean street, Brooklyn, died after a by Randolph de Blandeville, fourth Earl few hours' illness at his summer home in

Mr. Anderson returned to his country home yesterday from his office. He felt ill thus lost this ancient home, comes into and went to bed at once. Dr. E. T. Fosthe possession of the Staunton Harold es- ter, of Patchogue, was called, and when tate, near Ashby-de-la-Zouche, in Leices- he arrived Mr. Anderson was unconscious tershire, which has been occupied by the from apoplexy. He died without regaining consciousness.

Mr. Anderson leaves a wife and several

MISS OCTAVIA HILL.

London, Aug. 15.-The death is anitself dates from the early part of the announced here of Miss Octavia Hill, a friend of Ruskin and a member of the Charity Organization Society. She was member of the royal commission appinted in 1905 to report upon the working of the poor laws and to suggest amendments thereto, having established her rep- ern concern. More than thirty additional automobile discovered their plight and utation as a deep thinker on the problems involved by the publication of a remarkable sociological work, "The Homes of the London Poor." She was also one of the prime movers in the National Trust for Places of Historic Interest and Cohan Theatre Building, on Broadway, bruised Natural Beauty.

CHARLES E. PIERSON.

Plerson, of New York, died suddenly to theatrical event of the season in Springday in his summer home here. He was field took place to-night in the performeighty-six years old. The funeral will ance at the Court Square Theatre, of probably be held on Saturday, at the New York home, No. 125 West 41st street. Mr. Pierson fell down stairs a year ago and had ever since been an invalid.

EDMUND H. WHEELWRIGHT.

Thompsonville, Conn., Aug. 15.-After suffering two years from a mental break- definite length. Tork, and when thirteen years old became down which developed in his work as designer of the Hartford Bridge over the Connecticut River, Edmund M. Wheelwright, of Boston, died in a sanatorium here to-day.

stitute of Architects.

Awton, who held him in highest esteem return here about the middle of Septemfor his courage and endurance, and commended him as one of his stanchest and him at his departure.

THE NEW EARL FERRERS most effective supporters in the campaign of occupation. "The place for a cavalry man," Hayes HEARING FOR NEW PLAY ACRES FOR TWO CENTS is to be killed, that's where he should be Chosen by National Federation Million Per Cent Profit on "Small Investor's" Mite. of Theatre Clubs.

Written by Henry I. Dodge, Wise "Robbie" Walsh and Grandnephew of Washington Irving.

The Berkeley Theatre, in 44th street Washington, was caused by the death of L. F. Watson, federation's auspices. It was announced was a very small investor, because he in Congress ten years.

at the meeting that Mr. Dedge's play, stood only three feet six or so in his was married in 1868 to which has been entitled "The Higher stockings, and his capital was exactly Association and the National Geographic is an organization composed of playgoers, a plan.

Society. playwrights, managers and actors, who Then he risked for three months during the Civil War on will be followed by three other plays, capacitated for work by a fall, which April 6, in which prominent members of youngest son of the late Lieutenant Will- pear. It is understood that the public iam G. Woolsey, of the United States will be able to see the plays of the fed- Part proceeds of a charity bama

The Chartley Hall estate, with its 4,000 attend Presidential inaugurations, and and a grandson of General Residential Mrs. James E. Dodge, who fought in the Revolutionary was made President.

Mrs. James E. War and the War of 1812. He has had was made President. Was made President. War and the War of 1822 He has had his sister, Miss Mary A. Woolsey, and a somewhat varied career. Born, as he His sister, Miss Mary A. Woolsey, and a somewhat varied career. Born, as he two cousins, Dr. Jennie L. Berry, of the says, in the backwoods, he got his first Trancis 3 Findlay Mobeok Lake. New York Health Department, and her education in a country school in the Adibrother, the Rev. Clarence C. Berry, of rondacks. Then he came to New York and St. Louis, survive him. he went to London, where he began to write for the newspapers and magazines. He is the author of two novels, "The Other Mr. Barclay," and "The Hat and the Man." "The Higher Court" is his first attempt as a dramatist.

NEW VAUDEVILLE CONCERN.

In extending its circuit to cover the territory between Portland, Me., and Omaha, the Sheedy and Affillated Vaudeville Circuit has become one of the largest in its booking capacity in the United weeks were covered by the newcomers. took them to the Winslow home. and vaudeville performers may now make Dr. William J. Tracy, of Hillcrest Hosnear 43d street.

"THE MILLION" AT SPRINGFIELD. Asbury, Park, N. J., Aug. 15,-Churles E. Springfield, Mass., Aug. 15,-The first "The Million," the farce from the French and Prevention of Tuberculosis will soon of Berr and Guillemand, which had a send out an appeal to physicians in all of managed by a corporation in which Engsuccessful run in New York last season. the Eastern and Southern states to stop lish capital is enlisted. The original company, including Taylor sending poverty-stricken consumptives in Holmes and Paul Ker, acted the farce, the last stages of the disease to the Klaw yesterday, "which, as usual, is full On Monday "The Million" will move to Southwestern part of the country. Boston to begin an engagement of inas monuments of his architectural skill evening, occurred here to-night at the lessly ill. the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, the Savoy Theatre. "The Merry Countess" Cleveland Museum of Art, and the new is really a modernized version of "Die careful about sending such persons away, Winter Garden. Maurice Farkoa, the full fare. English tenor, sang the role of the Hun-DR. PORRAS LEAVES PANAMA. garian Szabo. Other leading members TO HUNT TUBERCULOSIS CURE. Panama, Aug. 15.—Dr. Belisario Porras, of the company are Fritzle Von Busing. Chicago, Aug. 15.—Dr. Arthur I. Ken- New York and Chicago will both play a who on August 2 was unanimously elected Mabel Burnege, Forrest Huff, Tom A.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

> SUNDAY'S NEW-YORK TRIBUNE Mailed anywhere in the United James A. Patten recently gave the uni-States for $250 a year.

Fortunately, the new Earl Ferrers. Warren Penn. Aug. 15.—Former Lieutenant Governor Charles W. Stone died CALLED 'THE HIGHER COURT' ALL OUTDOORS TO BE HIS Brother to Have Country Outing Soon.

oportunity to new writers of plays, by picture postcard. These preliminary steps square, the small investor borrowed a time. The next morning, August 14, to be exact, there appeared at the General Postoffice a communication addressed as fresh air sosioty tribune city

At the office of the Tribune Presh Att Fund, where it was ultimately received, t was found to contain a very simple found by one of the Tribune Fund's visitors yesterday in their basement of the play selected by the Na- wardly. Evidently the beauty of the and passed on by a committee consisting their Tribune vacations yesterday of Mary Shaw, Philip R. Dillon, Mrs. Most of them went to the Tribune' William Berry Woolsey, for forty-five Belle De Rivera, Augusta E. Kidder, Dr. home at Ardsley, N. Y. A few were years a clerk in the United States Custom Henry Solotaroff, Mrs. James Madison sent to Newville, Penn. To-day another House, died at No. 521 Washington ave- Bass, Mrs. Dore Lyon, Sydney Rosenfeld, party will go to Ardaley, and a party of

Helen A Russell White Lake, N. Y. Master Heriard Hays Goldsmith No Herification Previously acknowledged

WOMEN FALL FROM CARRIAGE

New Yorkers Hurt When Vehicle Is Overturned on Embankment.

was organized by a consolidation of the Dana Winslow, of No. 4 East 16th street, Brooklyn, September 2, and Robert Hil-New York, whose summer home is in liard, in "The Argyli Case," the Burns Moss & Brill circuits of greater New Washington, Mass., and her mother, Mrs. detective play, in Atlantic City, October night. On returning from a picnic in seen for the first time in Boston Au- donna role York, with the Sheedy and Olympia cir- Carroll, narrowly escaped death last ing capacity of twenty-five weeks. Yes- the darkness the carriage in which they gust 28.

Miles circuit, of Detroit and Cincinnati, away from the carriage and were not and the Klein & Crawford circuit, of St. caught beneath it. Members of Mrs. 17, a Louis and Omaha, joined with the East- Winslow's house party following in an the contracts for fifty-six weeks' bookings. pital here, was summoned to Washington. The Consolidated Booking Offices will He found Mrs. Winslow's arm dislocated autumn, and Laura Hope Crews in a new road. have a suite of offices in the George M. and badly sprained. Both women were

TO HEAD OFF CONSUMPTIVES

Prevention Association Says Too Many Are Going to Southwest. The National Association for the Study

Officers of the association estimate that living in Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, "THE MERRY COUNTESS" OPENS. Southern California and Western Texas have tuberculosis, or have come to the Lellan and Caryll, and t think both the Theatre and Roof Garden. Long Branch, N. J., Aug. 15.—The first American production of "The Merry family has had it. Every year, the Besides the Hartford bridge, which cost Countess," which is to open in New York health authorities estimate, ten thousand $2,000,000. Mr. Wheelwright leaves behind at the Casino Theatre next Tuesday persons go West to die, all of them hope-The physicians will be asked to be more West Boston bridge in Boston.

He was fifty-seven years old. He served been retained. The title role is sung tinue their practice of selling "charity" Fledermaus." All the Strauss music has and the railroads will be asked to discontwo terms as director of the American Indall, instructor in preventive medicine ogy at Northwestern University. He will versity $250,000.

NOT BUILT TO CATCH IT.

Follows His Arrival.

which arrived yesterday, was Marc Klaw. terests in New York and on the road. Yesterday final plans were made to bring butler busy opening the front door. Messrs, Klaw & Erlanger will offer a 500 number of their American productions in London and the provinces. The openings of the various attractions for the coming 200 season are as follows: "Ben-Hur." Syra-100 cuse, October 7, "The Round Up." Terre Charles Frohman yesterday announced will be seen in Lehar's "Eva." at the The first ensemble rehearsal of Walter Lenox, Mass., Aug. 15.-Mrs. Francis the season at the Broadway Theatre.

The New York company of "Milestones" letta," Sam Bernard's new play, "Two letta," Sam the Blackstone Theatre September 23.

Both these organizations will sail from is scheduled for Friday, August 23, when England on September 5.

most successful of last season's produc- Joe Weber will go to Quebec on Sepits American production in March.

"I saw nothing in Paris," said Mr. of dull revues, playing American ragtime the songs, and London was not as interesting no less than 10 per cent of the 6,000,000 as usual to me, theatrically speaking. "While in London I heard the music of negle Alaska-Siberia Moving Pictures will > book and the music will fully sustain the Lewis Waller and the English portion weeks. A syndicate of English capital was formed for that purpose two or three also be seen in China, India, Japan and Australia and all through the Orient during the next twelve months.

> "The two English companies which will be seen in 'Milestones' respectively in Woman in Newport Cares for Boy "There is considerable interest in the forthcoming production of 'Rebecca of have success abroad."

day in Baltimore.

Announcement of Season Plans Baltimore, Aug. 15 .- "Jack" Norworth, vaudeville star and husband of Nora Bayes, is ill at the Johns Hopkins Hos- avoid striking the boy, pital, and if his condition permits he will be operated on to-morrow. Norworth broke down in his theatrical of Klaw & Erlanger, who went to Europe work in New York about a fortnight ago His Gifts Include Roses from His in the middle of June. Soon after his ar- and stories were published that he had rival the announcement of the produc- gone to Carlshad or Baden-Baden. This. the theatrical firm of Klaw & Erlanger continually grew worse, the malady being were both doing nicely. Cards, flowers was given out. In addition to their in-Bright's disease and stomach trouble, and telegrams for both of them kept the

THEATRICAL NOTES.

To-night is amateur night at the Madi-

27,355 27 Haute, September 5, "Kismet," Hillinois that on Saturday, August 31, at the Har-Theatre, Chicago, September 23, "The ris Theatre, the first New York perform-Columbia Theatre, Washington, Novem- Damrosch's new come opera, "The Dove ber II, for the first time.

Henry Miller, in "The Rainbow," opens the season at the Broadway Theatre.
Brooklyn, September 2 and Robert Hillard, in "The Argyll Case," the Burns detective play, in Atlantic City, October 17. "The Count of Luxembourg" will be in the Best time in Reston Augusta Crosby has been engaged for the prima conna role.

This morning at the Winter Garden Ned "Oh, Oh, Delphine," begins at the For- Wayburn will select girls for the chorfected, when the Theatre Booking Corporation, of Chicago, the Charles II.

Miles circuit, of Detroit and Cincinnati, away from the carriage and were not selected with the corporation of the corporation of the Charles II.

Miles circuit, of Detroit and Cincinnati, away from the carriage and were not selected. Were driving overturned as their horses the Charles II.

Mrs. Winslow and Mrs. Carroll fell will open the Liberty Theatre September I. Little Brides" and other musical comewill open the Liberty Theatre September I. Company of the Charles II.

Mrs. Winslow and Mrs. Carroll fell will open the Liberty Theatre September I. Little Brides" and other musical comewill open the Liberty Theatre September I. Little Brides Theatre September I. Little Brides Theatre September II. It is a september of the Charles II.

Eugene Walter's new play, "A Plain the Liebler Company Special, made up Eugene Waiter's new play. "A Plain Woman," begins its season late in the autumn, and Laura Hope Crews in a new play by A. E. Thomas will be seen about the same time.

"The Little Cafe," which is one of the most successful of last season's productions in Germany and France, will have tember 1 to meet the Scotch company which is to present Graham Moffat's new "The Money Burners," by Glen MacDonough and Raymond Hubbell, will be produced in December.

"Ben-Hur" will also make a tour of the English provinces this year, and will be many read by a corresponding to the production of the production Lew Fields is also interested, as are both in "The June Bride," a musical play which will open in Boston the middle of next month.

Adrienne Augarde is returning on the steamship Adriatic, due to-day, to become a feature in vaudeville. Her tour begins at St. Louis, September 2, and includes the Orpheum circuit and B. F. Keith theatres. Beginning Monday, August 26, the Car-

'Oh, Oh, Delphine,' the new play by Mac- be exhibited at Hammerstein's Victoria reputation they achieved in 'The Pink of his supporting company, who are on Lady. The Pink Lady goes on tour in their way to this country on the Baltic, the provinces of England within two have special quarters aboard the steamer for rehearsing "Discovering America, the new modern play by Edward Knob was formed for that purpose two or three weeks ago. Klaw & Erianger will be will be made at Daly's Theatre early in interested in this corporation. It will September, with Lewis Waller and Madge Titheradge in the leading parts.

AIDS VICTIM OF HER CAR

Until Doctor Arrives. By Telegraph to The Tribune.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 15 .- Mrs. Charles L. F. Robinson, of Hartford, Conn., toand English people who have seen it on this side of the water believe that it will have success abroad."

day proved equal to the task of caring for a boys, ten years old, who had been this side of the water believe that it will have success abroad."

MAIN OFFICE—No. 1364 Broadway, or any American District Telegraph Office. Harlier Telegraph Office. Harl Globe Theatre, London, on September 2, day proved equal to the task of caring and the means of preventing it, for which and English people who have seen it on for a boys, ten years old, who had been Balley's Beach. The boy ran out from behind a wagon and directly into the path of the automobile. It was impossible for the chauffeur to stop the car in time to

ASTOR BABY IS THRIVING

Half Brother, Vincent.

It was said at the Astor home last night

Vincent Astor sent a bunch of American Beauty roses to his small half-brother. No visitors have been admitted yet to view New York's very latest multi-mil

Cash, Elizabeth S.
Cooper, Alberta G. S.
Hewitt, Sarah A.
Jordan, Frank W.
Melsel, Clarinda T.
White, Cornella E. F.
White, Cornella E. F.
White, Cornella E. F. White, Cornelia E. 1 Woolsey, William B

Platt, Isnac H.

CASH—On August 15, 1912, Elizabeth S. Cash

Cash— Funeral services at her late residence, No. 1414 Pine at., Philadelphia on Saturday, the 17th inst., at 2 p. m. Interment private. Please omit flowers. COOPER—August 13. Alberta G. S., aged 47 Services at "The Funeral Church," No. 24 West 28d st. (Campbell Building). Auto mobile cortege.

mobile cortege.

HEWITT-At her residence. Hingwood Manor, N. J., Sarah Amelia Hewitt, widow of Abram S. Hewitt and daughter of Peter Cooper, in her S2d year. Funeral services
All Scular Church, corner of Fourth ave, and 20th st., Saturday, August 17, 10:30 a. m.
It is requested no flowers be sent. JORDAN.-Frank Winthrop Jordan, at Bay-shore, L. I., Wednesday evening, August M. in the 38th year of his age, son of Frank S. and Sarah E. Jordan, of 1730 Broadway, New York City, and husband of Gertrude E. Walker Funeral artivate.

and Sarah E. Jordan, of Ital Broadway, New York City, and husband of Gertrude E. Walker. Funeral private.

MEISEL—On August 15, 1972, Clarinda Thompson Meisel, wife of C. G. Meisel. Fu-neral from Locust Vale. Bangali, N. Y., her-late residence, Sunday, August 18, 1812.

PLATT—On Wednesday, August 14, 1912, at his residence, Runnemede, Wallingford, Penn., Isaac Hull Platt, M. D., son of the late Frederick A. and Augusta M. Platt, Interment at Greenwood, Saturday, 17th, at 1:30 p. m.

Interment at Greenwood, Saturday, 1th, at 11:30 p. m.

ROGERS—At Tuxedo Park, N. Y., on August 13, 1912, Henry Fendleton Rogers, in the flet year of his age. Funerai services will be held at St. Bartholomew's Chapel, Madison ave. and 44th st. on Priday merning, August 16, at 10 o'clock. Interment at Hyde Park-on-Hudson at convenience of family.

SATTERLEE—Suddenly, at Quoque, Long Island, on August 14, 1912, Emily Virginia, widow of the late Clarence Satisfree and daughter of the late Timothy G. Churchill and Patience Lawrence Churchill. Funerai services on Saturday, August 17th, at 11 a. m., at Calvary Church, corner of 21st st. and 4th ave. Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend. Interment at New Hamburg, N. Y.

STERN—On Tucsday, August 13, 1912, at her

at New Hamburg, N. Y.
STERN-On Tuesday, August 13, 1912, at her residence, No. 15 Neptune ave., Edgemere, L. I., Azilla Lawrence Stern, beloved wife of Albert J. Stern, in her 28th year, daughter of Malcolm R. and the late imogene A. Lawrence. Special train will leave Edgemere on of Macolin A. and train will leave Edgemere on Friday. August 16, 1912, at 1:30 p. m. Funeral services will be held at St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Clinton ave., near Fulton st., Brooklyn, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

WASHBURN—At Mount Kisco, N. Y., on Wednesday, August 14, 1912, Emily T., widow of Oliver J. Washburn, in her S3d year, Funeral from her late residence, Mount Kisco, N. Y., Saturday, August 17, at WHITE—At her late residence, No. 24 Frank-lin Place, Summit, N. J., Cornella E. Fel-lows, wife of Theodore F. White, August 13. Funeral private.

WOOLSEY-On August 15, 1912, at his real-dence, No. 521 Washington ave., after two weeks' illness, Wiliam Berry Woolsey, Sur-vived by sister, Mary A. Woolsey, Notice of funeral later.

CEMETERIES.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY, 233d St. By Harlem Train and by Trolley, Office, 20 East 23d St., N. T. UNDERTAKERS. FRANK E. CAMPBELL, 241-3 West 23d St. Chapels, Private Rooms, Private Ambu-lances. Tel. 1324 Chelsea.

OFFICES.